

Christian Way Farm a 2008 Roadside Farm Market

Christian Way Farm of Hopkinsville has enrolled in the 2008 Kentucky Farm Bureau Certified Roadside Farm Market Program. This is Christian Way Farm's fifth year in the program. A total of 82 markets have enrolled in this year's program.

In joining the Kentucky Farm Bureau program, Christian Way Farm has committed to offering quality products and service. Its acceptance by Farm Bureau as a Certified Market tells customers that Christian Way Farm meets the highest standards of quality, freshness and marketing appeal.

Milton & Janie Corley grow and sell a variety of flowers, fruits, and vegetables on Linville Road off Hwy 800. Tomatoes, onions, peppers, peaches, and cut flowers are just a few of the products Christian Way Farm sells through its market. They also offer farm products & craft items, farm tours, hay rides, and pet & feed farm animals.

"The demand for locally grown products continues to increase," said Marshall Coyle, president of Kentucky Farm Bureau. "The Farm Bureau certification program is opening new sales opportunities for small and mid-size markets through coordinated promotional activities."

Brochures that list all of the participating markets, including a map which pinpoints their locations, are available in local tourism offices, county Farm Bureau offices, Interstate rest areas and State Park gift shops.
